He gets a barrage of messages and social media likes every time a Drake or Future song is played on the radio. He went viral when he and his crew got roughed up outside a venue in Sweden back in 2017 and swiftly generated hundreds of thousands of views for his painful clip showing his intricate fighting skills. With a signature red bandana wrapped around his neck, he's become so famous, that when I found myself on the streets of Birmingham, Alabama with him, I expected to see people make double-takes at seeing the biggest rapper of the day. If I didn't know
