Overview The Lands Between is a world where the Elden and the Forgotten prevail as great nations. Among them, three in particular are the center of political power: the Dukedom of Besterne, the High Kingdom of Penthest, and the Elden Kingdom of Urtea. The country of Besterne, the center of the Lands Between, lies on the southern side of a continent under a steady rain. As a fairly well-off nation, it has a turbulent and interesting political system with many rivaling monarchs and dukes. For the high-ranking nobility, often a duel to the death for control of the lands is the most popular form of entertainment. Meanwhile, in the forests in the northwest of the Lands Between, the pagan tribe of the Faebre takes root and spreads in its barbaric warlike ways. Midway between these two nations is the Elden Kingdom of Urtea. The Elden Kingdom has a relatively stable government that has ruled the Lands Between for a long time. However, its political power has been waning, and was almost entirely grounded after the dark times known as the Eclipse. Since then, the Elden Kingdom has struggled to rebuild itself, and the nobles have been growing restless. In the heart of the Continent is the Nuk Realm, the last stronghold of a forgotten nation. The king of the Nuk Realm, the duke of Elden Ring, and the elders of Urtea, all shared a grand vision that one day, even the two civilizations of the Dukedom of Besterne and the Kingdom of Urtea would be unified. But such a unification never happened, and now they have become enemies. So the Lands Between is locked in a state of war and disorder, and more and more conflicts are breaking out between the warring nations. And now, the conflict between the Nuk Realm and the Elden Ring is turning into a war for an even greater unification than before. The Lands Between is an action RPG where you can freely choose your character and develop them depending on the play style that you like. Building a New Kingdom ♦ 3 Unique Races You have a choice between two races, and the player's choice of race will affect how your character evolves. You can choose between the rustic and brash, or the honorable and quiet. ♦ 2 Neutral Races You can choose one of two neutral races. The race

Medication errors remain a major source of morbidity in the US. Because they occur in several settings and at several levels (e.g. prescribing by physicians, ordering by medical assistants, dispensing, administration, and documentation), this problem is in no way encompassed by just one type of medication error. Efforts to increase awareness and safety of pharmacists, physicians, and nursing staffs are needed to reduce the incidence and impact of medication errors. Given current society emphasis on patient autonomy, patient safety, and employee rights, the proposed education intervention represents one of the most promising and efficient strategies for improving the process of care and for increasing patient safety. Unfortunately, a critical but almost universally ignored problem with medically directed education is that not all errors can be anticipated, prevented, or remedied. Assuming the risk of these "upside down" errors is best handled by the decision making and control mechanisms of the individual. In this project, we present an innovative technology designed to optimize and to accelerate the learning of behavior change strategies. The system allows many individuals, in parallel to learn the same strategy. It decomposes the learning process into adaptive framework sections, so the learner can continuously pinpoint the concerns which generate the most adaptive learning. It optimizes the learning experience by automatically modifying it at each stage along with training in short bursts with feedback. When a potential error is detected, the system recommends a corrective action for that mistake. During the training process, the learner adjusts his behavior via a technique which incorporates alpha/
