pair of angry 19-year-old protesters in eastern China said they chased down and beat a man who harassed a female protester last week. Video captured by bystanders shows a man trying to force his way into a women's college dorm on the campus of Wenzhou Medical University in Zhejiang province on Jan. 12, Zhejiang Evening News reported. He forcefully grabbed the woman's hoodie and tried to pull her away from the door to the dorm. Her classmates chased him and the female student tried to push him away. Police arrived at the scene and arrested the man, who was carrying a knife and threatening students' safety. He later told police that the woman had hit him with a metal chain, which caused him to lose control of his vision, causing him to become aggressive, the report said. Medical students at the university told police they saw the female student throw water at the man. "He became more and more violent, threatening our lives and insisting on [returning] to the dorm for the night. I shouted loudly to wake up the roommates.
The students had by then already left to go to class," the university student said.

powered razor blade. The individual blades are available separately. It is used on the individual blades through the razor body, which is made of metal and plastic. It needs a few seconds to pass the blades of the blade through the shaft and the air.

Then it is common for the blades in the shaft are rolled in the direction of movement with the air. Despite the use of such a tool, it should be used with caution. This is because it can easily cause injuries. Hopefully, this piece will be a
